

Workshop and breakfast with the artist Karolina Gacke

November 4, 2025

8:00 – 9:00 AM

Inspired by Mending Pieces by Yoko Ono, this workshop titled Mending Breakfast invites participants to become artistically active during breakfast. On a table, fragments of broken ceramics are laid out, accompanied by simple materials such as adhesive tape, string, and scissors. Participants are invited to “repair” or freely reinvent these fragments to create new objects. In doing so, they become not only co-creators of the artwork but also part of a healing process. The simple act of repairing ceramics becomes a metaphor for the preservation of all things—tangible or abstract, personal or universal. By repairing together, we can experience a form of healing through our attention and awareness.
